Making Your Move Less Stressful... A Checklist To Make Sure Things Get Done

Things To Do ASAP After Deciding To Move

| _ | contact a moving company and tell them the dates you plan to move. Set up a date for an agent to come over and survey your goods. Unless you're given a binding estimate, the cost can vary, depending on the actual weight of items and any extra services. |
|----------|---|
| | Decide if you are going to pack for yourself or have the movers do it. |
| | Transfer or resign from organizations and associations. |
| | Collect suitable containers & packing materials if you plan to do the packing yourself. |
| | Start to use up things that can't be moved, such as frozen foods, canned goods, and flammable household aerosol cleaners. Buy only what you will use before moving. |
| | Prepare a list of friends, relatives, business firms, and others who need to be notified of your move. |
| | Consider having a garage sale to dispose of unwanted clothes or furniture. |
| | Assemble packing materials: Boxes, felt-tip markers, large self-stick labels, newspapers, utility knife, packing peanuts or bubble wrap, packing tape, furniture pads, dolly, scissors |
| | Pack an "Instant Aid" box containing things you'll need upon arrival: Sponges, paper towels, powdered detergent, paper plates, toothpaste, light bulbs, hammer, trash bags, hand soap, toilet paper, scissors, utility knife, coffee cups, tea kettle, first-aid kit, snacks, pencils and paper, masking tape, bath towels, and shelf liner |
| | Things To Do 30-60 Days Before The Move |
| | Establish credit in your new city. Arrange for a transfer of bank account funds and the contents of your safety deposit box. |
| | Check personal insurance policies to see whether moving is covered. Transfer fire, theft, and other personal property insurance to ensure coverage at your new home. |
| | Gather information on prescriptions. Get current phone numbers and addresses of your doctor and dentist. |
| | Arrange to transfer school records and secure transcripts from the local school district you are leaving. Get copies of your records from doctors, dentists, accountants, etc. |
| | Plan to cancel all utilities. |
| | Pick up all dry cleaning and anything left at the tailor. |
| | Set a date to cancel the newspaper. |
| | Alert the post office that you will be moving. If you don't yet know your permanent address, the post office can hold your mail for you. Send out change-of-address cards. First-class mail is forwarded free of charge for one year; newspapers and magazines - 60 days. |
| | Take your car in to have it checked for the upcoming road trip. |
| | Transfer all prescriptions to your new pharmacy. |
| | Have rugs and draperies cleaned and keep them in bags until the movers arrive. |
| | Take pets to the veterinarian. Most states require health certificates and rabies inoculations for licenses. |
| | Collect all items being repaired, cleaned, or stored. |
| | Return library books and anything else you may have horrowed |

Moving Checklist For Kids

Your children may feel anxious and excited at the thought of a moving adventure. To ensure that they are most comfortable in their new surroundings here are some suggestions.

Be sure to investigate the local children attractions in your new destination

Park District Programs may be available for class enrollment

Research the ages of children nearby

Assist in getting the kids' rooms set up first

Rental movies might help keep kids occupied as you begin to get moved into your new home

Have snacks and drinks available on moving day

Special book(s) or craft items and games may keep the kids occupied on moving day

If the children are young, a babysitter may assist you in being responsible for the kids on the day you move into your new home.

Have a change of clothes easily accessible for the kids

☐ Any medications that are taken on a regular basis should be accessible to you

Moving Checklist For Pets

Your pets require special care and attention when moving to a new location. Here are some suggestions on making the move as comfortable as possible:

Small dogs and cats can be flown by air transportation or driven along in the car. There are businesses that specialize in the transportation of pets. Your moving company may be able to supply you with names of pet movers or you may look in your phone directory business pages. If you are arriving in your new destination by air transportation, your pet(s) can ride along in the baggage compartment. If you choose to transport your pet(s) in this fashion, here is a quick checklist of items to consider:

| You must provide the airline carrier with a current health certificate from your veterinarian. |
|---|
| Make sure to speak with the airlines about their specific rules and regulations regarding pet transportation. They may provide special shipping containers. |
| If you have a container for your pet, make certain that it fits within the requirements of the airline carrier. |
| Tranquilizers may be appropriate to obtain from your veterinarian to give to your pet prior to the trip. |
| Something familiar to your pet such as a toy or an article of clothing or blanket may help your pet feel more comfortable during the flight. |

If your pet is flying without you, be sure you have arranged for someone to pick up your pet. If you do not know anyone in the new destination, a local kennel can do that for you. Some kennels will board pets, which may assist you in the move as well.

If your pet(s) are traveling with you in the car, be sure to have their water bowl, leash and favorite toy. Be sure to make frequent stops as pets can get carsick easily and being restricted in a car all day can make them nervous and upset. Some motels and hotels offer accommodations for pets. Be sure to plan your stay on the road ahead of time.

Smaller pets such as hamsters, birds and other small animals can be transported in the car fairly easily. Make sure that your pet has enough food and water in their cages and are kept out of drafts or extreme temperatures. Cover their cages to keep them quiet and calm.

Moving Checklist For Plants

It is best for the plants if you can transport them in the car. Here are some suggestions for moving your plants. ☐ Three weeks before you move, prune back your plants to make them hardier and less bulky for the trip. ☐ Two weeks before moving, place your plants in a black plastic bag with a pest/bug strip or pest control powder. Close the bag and place in a cool area overnight. This will kill any pests on the plants or in the soil. ☐ The day before your move, place plants in the travel containers. Cardboard boxes are preferable. Secure the plants by packing dampened newspaper or dampened packing paper around the base of the plants and soil. Use more paper to cushion the leaves and place a final layer of wet paper on top of the plants to keep them moist. On moving day, set the boxes aside so that the moving company does not load them onto the moving van. On moving day, close up the boxes and punch air holes in the top...load them into your car. ☐ While plants are in the car, take care not to leave the plants in extreme heat or cold. Unpack the plants as soon as you arrive. Remove plants from the bottom of the box in order to avoid breaking the stems. ☐ Gradually expose plants to sunlight to reduce shock. ☐ If you leave your plants behind, take cuttings. Put the cuttings in to a plastic bag with wet paper towels wrapped around the cuttings.
